About the Artist

(c) American Honey Photography

I'm an Army wife, mother, chai tea lover, former ballet dancer, and seamstress for my little clothing shop 'sew la morgan.' I totally love capturing special moments and having fun! My favorite thing and only goal is to make people smile!

I am a self taught digital photographer who also dabbles in film photography.

What to Expect

I am a potraiture photographer with a lifestyle touch. which means I love posed images but candids melt my heart as well. Please come ready to laugh and have fun! Every package includes all digital images. There will be a set for printing and a set to put on the web. I ask that when you share images online you use the web images for your protection against theft. All images will have a digital watermark and you will receive a print release so you may print your images wherever and as many times as you need! You can expect approximately 2-3 weeks for images to be ready.

Full Session Pricing

This package is for a 30-45 minute long session.

You get 20-25 images on a USB drive.

This is ideal for engaged couples, maternity sessions, families, or seniors. This type of session allows for two locations; time to travel to the second location does not count against session time.

(Add $100 for a newborn session for triple the time covered.)

Digital files are included in every package, but images were not meant to be left on a computer so consider ordering some professional prints!

Referrals

If you refer a new client to me I would love to provide you with a complimentary 11x14 print of any image from your past sessions! Just have your friend tell me you sent them and I will contact you about receiving your gift!

Policies

A deposit ($50) is required to secure your session, with the remaining amount due to receive your images. I offer payment plans so if you need to pay over a couple months you may but your images will not be released to you until your balance is paid in full.

I offer two opportunities to reschedule because, well, life happens sometimes! If the second reschedule falls through unfortunately your deposit is forfeited and a new deposit is required to go ahead with the third reschedule. (This does not apply to rescheduling due to weather)

I will convert any images to black and white or color for an additional $5 fee per image.
